- Experience that demonstrates knowledge of budget and/or accounting processes and procedures.
- Knowledge of Federal travel regulations and procedures

Knowledge, skills and abilities required. The successful candidate must also have outstanding knowledge, skills and abilities in the following areas:

- knowledge and understanding of budget and accounting procedures, terminology, systems and codes
- ability to analyze financial data and produce financial reports
- knowledge of the procedures and techniques involved in carrying out the work of a Federal agency, such as the U.S. Election Assistance Commission.

OTHER INFORMATION:

The United States Election Assistance Commission (“EAC” or “Commission”) is conducting a search for the position of Financial Administrative Specialist. The EAC was established by the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA). Central to its role, the EAC serves as a national clearinghouse and resource for information with respect to the administration of Federal elections. According to the text of HAVA, the law was enacted to:

... establish a program to provide funds to States to replace punch card voting systems, to establish the Election Assistance Commission to assist in the administration of Federal elections and to otherwise provide assistance with the administration of certain Federal election laws and programs, to establish minimum election administration standards for States and units of local government with responsibility for the administration of Federal elections, and for other purposes.

-- Excerpt from The Help America Vote Act of 2002

HAVA requires that the EAC:

- Provide for testing, certification, decertification, and recertification of voting system hardware and software by accredited laboratories;
- Conduct public studies on various election administration issues;
- Submit a report on each study conducted, with recommendations, to the President, the House Administration Committee, and the Senate Rules and Administration Committee;
- Make requirements payments to States each year;
- Make grants to assist entities in carrying out research and development to improve the quality, reliability, accuracy, accessibility, affordability and security of voting equipment, election systems, and voting technology;
- Make grants to carry out pilot programs under which new technologies in voting systems and voting equipment are tested and implemented on a trial basis;
- Award grants to the National Student and Parent Mock Election, a national, nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that works to promote voter participation through voter education activities for students and their parents; and
- Conduct studies and issue reports on a variety of topics generally dealing with improving the administration of Federal elections.
